The PR Training Centre (<http://www.theprtrainingcentre.com/>), the UK's leading Public Relations training (<http://www.theprtrainingcentre.com/>) company, has celebrated its fifth year of trading with a special offer to all of its existing 2,000 delegates and anyone who books a PR Workshop (http://www.theprtrainingcentre.com/pr\_courses.html) before the end of August 2009. Says principal presenter Jacqui Green, "Anyone who books on one of our one-day workshops before the end of August can book at 2004 prices which is one-fifth off the normal price – that's £395 against £495. That represents a saving of £100. Any of our existing customers can claim an additional £50 discount as a thank you in our anniversary year."

"With customer satisfaction levels running at 98 per cent for all courses delivered in 2008, demand is higher than ever across the board on all our public relations (http://www.theprtrainingcentre.com/pr\_courses.html) courses] – PR Skills (http://www.theprtrainingcentre.com/pr\_training\_courses.html) Workshop, Online Digital PR (<http://www.theprtrainingcentre.com/digital-pr-skills-training.html>) Skills, and Web Marketing Skills, as well as our newer subjects such as Creative Writing for PR and Blogs and Reputation Management.'

Creative Writing for Public Relations (<http://www.theprtrainingcentre.com/creative-writing-course.html>), the PR Training Centre's popular half-day course on using the internet, will next be run in Covent Garden, London, on Monday 15 July and a few seats are still available.
