

Party Planners Theme Traders go Jurassic...event organisers themed props set the scene at the Dinosaur Encounter.

Submitted by: Theme Traders

Wednesday, 22 July 2009

Party Planners (<http://www.themetraders.com>) Theme Traders event production company, have just installed the fabulous dinosaur set and theming for The Dinosaur Encounter at the Bic Bournemouth in conjunction with one of Britains leading venues The Natural History Museum who provided the amazing dinosaur props. The exhibition has been so successful that it has already been extended till 1st September.

Theme traders Jungle theming, desert theming and swamp theme housed the amazing animatronics dinosaurs, which are exhibited and tour worldwide.

Theme Traders report that since the dinosaurs have been on tour there has been a huge upsurge in clients requesting Jurassic themed parties and events, so much so that they have just invested in their very own set of fabulous dinosaurs, beat the credit crunch go Jurassic...

Theme Traders are leading event and party planners (http://www.themetraders.com/party_planners.php) and house the largest stock of themed props for hire in Europe as well as being a full event production company and event organisers. They have worked regularly with the Apprentice, supplied parties and props for Big Brother, themed five areas in Buckingham Palace (http://www.themetraders.com/party-planners_testimonials/party-at-the-palace.php) for the Queens 80th birthday party, launched albums for Iron Maiden, Parties for the Spice Girls and event decorations and costumes for Elton John's fabulous parties. They have produced, themed and installed hundreds of events and parties for over 20 years worldwide.

View website:

www.themetraders.com
Contact - 0208 452 8518
Kim Einhorn
The Stadium
Oaklands Road
NW2 6DL