Naughty or nice, join the Christmas madness at Slots N Games

Whether you have been naughty or nice this year, you still have the chance to get your hands on an extra special gift this Christmas. Top online casino Slots N Games (<http://www.slotsngames.co.uk>) will be giving away thousands of pounds during the month of December and has a whole host of exciting promotions lined up to get players into the festive spirit.

Christmas is also about having fun with friends and family, so what better way to crank up the excitement than to participate in the 'Week Before Christmas' Slots Tournament (<http://www.slotsngames.co.uk/slotsandgames/casino/promotions/ bespoke-promotions/11536/slots-tournament.shtml>) at Slots N Games. Lucky winners who play Santa's Slotto Grotto between 14th and 23rd December will scoop a share of £500 and see in the New Year hundreds of pounds richer. It is a multi-player tournament and any one can enter – what better reason to invite some friends over and gather cosily around the fireplace, laptop in hand and play. It could be a lot more interesting than roasting chestnuts or playing Monopoly (<http://www.slotsngames.co.uk/slotsandgames/casino/lobby/all-games/8458/monopoly.shtml>).

As a further incentive for players, Santa has taken up short-term residence at Slots N Games and will be keeping a watchful eye on all players until 31st December. As part of the Secret Santa promotion, Santa will be surprising lucky players with bonus cash prizes every single day. Each day will present a new chance of winning up to £100; a nice reward for doing the thing you love best – playing slots (<http://www.slotsngames.co.uk/slotsandgames/casino/promotions/ bespoke-promotions/11530/secret-santa.shtml>) and casino games.

To add some icing on your Christmas cake, Slots N Games (<http://www.slotsngames.co.uk/slotsandgames/casino/lobby/slots/20-lines/>) will be offering an amazing £1,000 in cash in its Xmas Giveaway. Players who play between 20th November and 13th December 2009 will automatically be entered into this competition and five lucky winners will be pulled out at random. A share of £1,000 would no doubt go down quite nicely this time of year having spent a small fortune on Christmas presents, food and alcohol.

With unbeatable cash giveaways, and an ongoing £275 Triple Bonus offer, Slots N Games is really putting its players first this Christmas. The British online casino (<http://www.slotsngames.co.uk>) is devoted to creating a truly festive atmosphere where players can play their favourite games and receive greater rewards – Christmas is all about giving after all, and Slots N Games is definitely feeling the spirit of Christmas.
