

AsiaRooms.com - See Lofty Integrity at the Hong Kong Museum of Art

Submitted by: LateRooms Ltd

Thursday, 6 May 2010

Art lovers who are staying at hotels in Hong Kong (http://www.asiarooms.com/hong_kong/index.html) this summer are sure to want to take in an exhibition of oil and ink paintings at the city's Museum of Art.

Some 51 works by Wu Guanzhong are on show at the Chinese Fine Art Gallery at the Hong Kong Museum of Art in Tsim Sha Tsui until August 29th.

Considered to be one of 20th-century China's most innovative and important artists, Wu recently donated a number of works to the museum's permanent collection.

The artwork in the Lofty Integrity showcase, some of which was created in 2008 and 2009, is a thematic exhibition of a selection of some of these artistic creations.

Admission to the event costs HK$10 and can be purchased directly from the Hong Kong Museum of Art.

The museum, established in 1962, contains some 15,000 art objects, including works by local artists, historically significant paintings and calligraphy works and antique Chinese treasures.

It is open daily from 10:00 to 18:00 local time, with the exception of Thursdays, when it is closed. On Saturday, the museum has extended hours, closing at 20:00 local time.

Posted by Delia Jones

Editors Notes:

AsiaRooms.com is a leading online accommodation site in Asia offering deals in over 36,000 properties worldwide, including 7,000 hotels in the Asia-Pacific region ranging from individual beach huts to 5-star hotels and sprawling villas.

AsiaRooms.com offers customers a saving of up to 70 per cent off the normal room rate for a variety of independent and branded hotels. Customers can book online or by phone 24/7, whether booking 12 months or 12 minutes in advance – whatever time, whatever day.

The contemporary and inspirational online platform is styled for those seeking more interesting hotel options over the bland, obvious choices. Users can read from over 150,000 true hotel reviews, written by customers who have booked through AsiaRooms.com and actually stayed at the hotel.

To view more information about AsiaRooms.com, please visit <http://www.asiarooms.com/about-us/>