Milan's Arena Civica is set to welcome Austrian duo Kruder & Dorfmeister as part of the Milano Jazzin' Festival that is taking place in June.

Anyone at accommodation in Milan (http://www.laterooms.com/en/k13652155_milan-hotels.aspx) wanting to check out the pair can pick up tickets for their June 15th show by going online, with tickets costing €27.50 (£23.40) and the performance beginning at 21:00 (local time).

They are perhaps best known for the remixes that they have produced of tracks by top artists such as Madonna, Roni Size and Depeche Mode, although fans may highlight their 1996 record in the DJ Kicks series as further evidence of their talent.

"Although they are best known for their remixing work, the duo has also gained a reputation around Europe for their live DJ performances, and to a lesser extent, their original compositions," noted Last.fm.

As well as the performances and mix CDs that the pair create together, Peter Kruder can be heard under the name Tosca - in which he plays alongside Rupert Huber - and Richard Dorfmeister has a solo project called Peace Orchestra.

Some of the other major names that are playing at the Milano Jazzin' Festival include Mark Knopfler, Crosby Stills and Nash, and Mario Bondi.

For more information on this event visit the Arena Civica website or contact the venue on +39 2 34 1924.

To make the most of the Kruder & Dorfmeister concert - you should consider booking your hotel Milano (http://www.laterooms.com/it/k13652155_hotel-milano.aspx) to avoid disappointment.
