Tourists who manage to drag themselves away from the beach during their time at Gold Coast accommodation (http://www.laterooms.com/en/k11481343_gold-coast-hotels.aspx?cur=aud) should check out the start of Broadbeach Jazz and Food Festival.

All that time spent surfing or lounging around and soaking up the sun can certainly work up an appetite, which means people are sure to welcome the chance to sample fine cuisine prepared by a number of celebrity chefs.

While the full programme for the festival - which runs between August 19th and 22nd 2010 - has yet to be announced, organisers have confirmed that singer-songwriter Kate Ceberano will be holding a free-of-charge performance on the third night.

The star is well known in Australia following a string of appearances on TV shows such as Dancing With The Stars, It Takes Two and Who Do You Think You Are, while she also won three 'Mo' awards back in 1990.

Other stars on the bill include big-name chef Tobie Puttock, who has been lined up for August 22nd to give a Sunday afternoon cooking demonstration.

Guests at Surfers Paradise hotels

(http://www.laterooms.com/en/k11513281_surfers-paradise-hotels.aspx?cur=aud) who fancy a bite to eat will find they are spoilt for choice if they head down to Broadbeach, with the area boasting more than 100 restaurants and cafes.

LateRooms.com recommends a range of accommodation on the Gold Coast, including Gold Coast International (http://www.laterooms.com/en/hotel-reservations/164545_gold-coast-international-gold-coast.aspx?cur=aud).

For more information on this event, visit the Broadbeach Jazz and Food Festival website or contact the organisers on (+61) 7 5539 8416.
