Art and Jazz is poised to begin at the Bilbao Guggenheim Museum, with music enthusiasts likely to be excited to see top class bands playing in the world-famous venue.

The programme begins on Tuesday August 24th 2010 and runs until Friday 27th, with a different group taking to the stage each night.

However, this is not just an average gig, since attendees will be able to appreciate the art on display in the museum as well as the spectacular sounds of a series of talented musicians.

Hotel Bilbao (http://www.laterooms.com/en/k15767120_bilbao-hotels.aspx) guests will have the chance to see Christian Howes Quartet on the first night, with the titular performer having played with Les Paul, Dafnis Prieto and a variety of other famous musicians in the past.

The following night sees the José Alberto Medina trio featuring Dick Oatts - a highly respected saxophonist - on stage, while Thursday evening will see Mamen García presents El Cofrecito.

And finally, Fredrik Carlquist & Dave Mitchell Quartet will cap off the week of jazz with their saxophone and guitar-led sound.

Doors open at 23:00 local time and attendees can enjoy Art and Jazz until 02:00 in the morning.

Tickets cost €14.50 (£12.15), although travellers who are members of the art space can get in for €7.50.
