Travel management specialists CT Group Travel take a natural step in growing their group travel offering by venturing into event management (<http://www.ctgrouptravel.co.uk>) services.

Creating and hosting events whether they're small or large can be incredibly complex and hugely challenging. Many business who have a need to arrange an event turn to professional organisations who have the experience, knowledge and contacts to manage an event from start to finish.

CT Group Travel, based in Tunbridge Wells, Kent has been trading for 21 years and is a leading UK travel management specialist. Event Management is not entirely new to CT Group Travel as they have been organising trade mission events and providing conference management (<http://www.ctgrouptravel.co.uk/conferences/>) services for many years. This has given them a wealth of expertise and understanding in how to run successful events, large and small for parties in different locations around the world.

Mark Kempster, Managing Director of CT Group Travel commented, "A key USP that separates us from the many other UK businesses who specialise in organising events such as conferences and corporate team building events, is the fact that the backbone of our business is being a tour operator, we therefore have partnerships with many airlines and hotels worldwide. Arranging transportation and accommodation for any number of people is an area where we excel, and obviously we can do this at very competitive prices, given we have access to the best industry rates worldwide".

Kempster continued, "It's also through our extensive supplier partnerships that we have a huge database to tap into to locate and recommend suitable venues for clients to choose from".

Whilst CT Group Travel has the ability to organise any event, it is most commonly targeting the following:

- Annual Sales Meetings
- Corporate Hospitality
- Product Launches
- Christmas or Annual Parties
- Conferences
- Team Building Events
- Reward & Incentive Trip Events

Overall CT Group Travel has a firm belief it has the resources to be creative, present clients with outstanding venues that meet agreed budgets and provide a professional service from start to finish.
