Sick of the never ending winter? Need some winter sun? Well you're in luck, designer children's clothing (<http://www.eliasandgrace.com/>) store, Elias and Grace have launched the Vacation collection which is their range of summer clothing designed for those heading off for warmer climes.

The Vacation range is designed by Elias and Grace's own label; Miller and is exclusive to the site. The resort collection features lightweight girl's dresses in pretty coral, soft grey and pure white colours which incorporate pretty detailing such as ruffled collars and light pleats for a chic summer feel. There is a French Riviera feel throughout the designer girls fashion (<http://www.eliasandgrace.com/highlight/vacation/girls>) with the use of red, white and navy tones in their t-shirts, pump shoes and sun hats that match perfectly with the tan coloured cargo shorts.

The boys fashion (<http://www.eliasandgrace.com/highlight/vacation/boys>) range has simple yet perfectly crafted crew neck t shirts in shades of cool grey marl, navy blue and classic skinny navy and white stripes. These can be layered with a long sleeved red or navy top for slightly cooler days and teamed up with stone coloured, cotton shorts paired with navy blue or white Birkenstock sandals and a cute sunhat!

The smallest member of the family doesn't need to be left out either! The range extends to babies with a selection of cute dresses and t shirts to keep your little one cool no matter where in the world you are!

And what are you going to pack all these gorgeous garments in? The resort collection even features the most adorably fashionable mini, printed suitcases by Lale. These come in a number of quirky patterns, with leather handles and adorable luggage tags.
