CitySocialising (<http://www.citysocialising.com>) the UK's leading Online2Offline socialising network (<http://www.citysocialising.com>) and community for outgoing young urbanites have this week announced the lucky winner of their 'Win a Free Social Life' competition. The winner was chosen at random from the thousands of people who entered hoping to meet new friends (<http://www.citysocialising.com/friends/>) and give their social calendar a kick start.

The lucky winner Cassie and her three closest friends no longer have to worry about how to fill their evenings as they have been treated to £3000 worth of vouchers courtesy of CitySocialising to spend making the most of their social lives in 2011. The prize consisted of vouchers from Virgin Experience Days (<http://www.virginexperiencedays.co.uk/>), Seatwave (<http://www.seatwave.com/>), PizzaExpress (<http://www.pizzaexpress.com/>), TheatreTokens.com (<http://www.theatretokens.com/>), Cineworld (<http://www.cineworld.co.uk/>), and annual premium memberships to CitySocialising (<http://citysocialising.com/>).

The nationwide competition which was free to enter was launched as an incentive to get the young urbanites of Britain away from their desks and spending more time making the most of their cities and the local events organised by CitySocialising in their area.

Sanchita Saha CEO and founder of CitySocialising commented:

"While the rest of Britain sit at home and make excuses about the economic climate or in fact climate, CitySocialising members are the outgoing young city dwellers who have made the conscious decision not to spend their evenings chained to their desks or weekends on the couch, our members want to get out and make the most of what their city has on offer and meet some likeminded new faces in the process."

Cassie and her three friends this weekend were given the VIP treatment at CitySocialising's Mass Mingle, the monthly event hosted by CitySocialising (<http://www.citysocialising.com>) which see's hundreds of urbanites turn out to meet new people (<http://www.citysocialising.com>), expand their social network (<http://www.citysocialising.com>) and enjoy great company and entertainment.

Talking of the competition, Cassie commented:

"I made a couple of New Year's Resolutions this year - Firstly to make new friends in the City close to where I work and live, and secondly to try out lots of new activities - I was keen to go to more concerts, the theatre and try out new things like rock climbing so winning this prize is perfect for me because it's enabling me to do both! I've also always wanted to fly a helicopter so I think that's what I will use the Virgin experience vouchers for!

I originally signed up to CitySocialising because one of my female friends suddenly seemed to have a lot of new, cool female friends. When I asked her how she'd managed to meet them all she told me about CitySocialising, so I signed up and it went from there.

I've only been on CitySocialising a couple of months and I've already met a great, lively bunch of people. My favorite night so far has been the girl's only cocktail-making class, but I've had the opportunity to try lots of different activities and socials with new friendly people. One of the best things about CitySocialising is that you could be trying out a new activity every night of the week, with completely new people."

Sanchita CEO and founder of CitySocialising (<http://www.citysocialising.com>) went on to say:

"We thought this competition would be a great opportunity to showcase just a few of the varied activities our outgoing members enjoy being part of our community. We now organise over 1000 Socials a month across 50 UK cities and the prizes up for grabs were just a taster of all the fantastic Social days and nights out our members enjoy. We think it's wonderful Cassie as an active member of our site was drawn out the hat for this prize. We know her and her friends will use the vouchers to ensure they make the most of 2011"
