Now you can make your perfect Summer's day even better by sharing it with Shloer's brand new Summer Fruit Punch. (<http://www.facebook.com/shloer>) The limited edition flavour is light and fruity, perfectly refreshing on a sunny day.

It's all in the serve

Befitting of the grandest garden party, or simply enjoyed at a Sunday Social barbeque, Shloer's Summer Fruit Punch is best served 'dressed to impress'. Conjure up the typical tastes of summer: mint leaves, slices of orange and cucumber and fresh juicy strawberries, all served in a jug over ice – perfect for sharing.

The natural alcohol alternative

Shloer uses only the best ingredients to create a delicious non-alcoholic sparkling juice drink. All varieties make a tasty grape-based alternative to alcohol, suitable for all the family - including those who want to enjoy the Summer social circuit without drinking alcohol. Shloer contains no preservatives, artificial colours, sweeteners or flavourings and is available from all major supermarkets.

Best served shared – on any occasion

Shloer's Summer Fruit Punch will add a little sparkle to any social gathering planned or impromptu: That might be sharing with friends during one of the many Spring bank holidays or serving at a wedding – even a Royal one, yes Shloer is fit for a King (or Queen).
