Rudell The Jewellers of Harborne and Wolverhampton are one of the most prestigious family businesses in the country.

Still owned by the Rudell family, we continue to be renowned regionally and nationally for our outstanding service and a quality of jewellery that remains above comparison.

Rudells offers pure luxury created by the combination of precious and innovative materials along with very distinctive designs, for an elegant and sophisticated range of styles fusing the classic with the contemporary. An unmistakable creativity that transcends both time and passing trends.
