FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hooray for Father's Day!

Make your dad happy with great gift ideas from unifit.co.uk

Father's Day is a great excuse to show your appreciation to your Dad. Whether it's decking out his tool shed, looking after his sports gear or helping him with that long overdue promise to clean the windows, www.unifit.co.uk have a few gift suggestions that you can choose from to make his life easier.

DIY DAD

Bruns Tool Tidy - £22.98 (www.unifit.co.uk)

The Bruns Tool Tidy is the ideal gift for any dad this Father's Day, especially those that spend more time tripping over their tools than using them. The Bruns Tool Tidy securely holds wood, metal, plastic and shapeless items with a diameter of 0 -50mm weighing up to 10kg each. A great gift for de-cluttering vital floor space that can be used for that pool table that he's always wanted.

ACTIVE DAD

Pingi Shoe Dry- £22.99 (www.unifit.co.uk)

If your Dad is a fitness nut and is always down at the gym, out for a run or squeezing in a round of golf, then the Pingi Shoe Dry is the perfect gift. The Shoe Dry uses technology found in dehumidifiers to dry your shoes from the inside out without the use of heat. This helps sports shoes stay free from the bacteria that causes foot odour meaning his gym bag will always be smelling fresh.

LAZY DAD

Telescopic Window Cleaning Kit - £9.99 (www.unifit.co.uk)

The Telescopic Window Cleaning Kit from Home Valet is a great gift for Father's Day. With a detachable handle the Window Cleaning Kit is also great for cleaning the car and ground floor windows, leaving them smear free and gleaming. When extended, Dad will be able to clean those upper windows up to 3.5 metres without the need for getting out the step ladder. This may not be the gift he was craving for but at least you and all your family will enjoy watching him finally getting those long neglected windows cleaned.
