

ARE YOU MAN ENOUGH FOR MANATOMICALS?

Submitted by: Sparkle PR

The macho men amongst us need never be bored with bathroom reading material again with the Manatomicals grooming range, available now from Waitrose (selected lines) and Boots stores nationwide from August 2011.

Guaranteed to pamper with attitude, each of the six paraben free sprucers offers seriously great smelling and excellent performing formulations for real men, all packaged in not-so-serious fun and funky and deeply ironic packaging.

Each witty read-in-the bath-room bottle provides the perfect pick-me-up for body and mind and at prices that will have you laughing all the way to the pub (we're talking spit and sawdust here, not some la-di-da wine bar by the way). After all, life's serious enough as it is, why should your bathroom be?

Manatomicals is available now from Waitrose (selected lines) and from Boots stores nationwide from August 2011. Are you man enough?
