Ragdale Hall – perfect end-of-term pampering for teachers

As pupils, large and small, across the country – from exam weary eighteen year olds to fidgety five year olds – celebrate the long awaited start of the summer holidays, they are by no means alone.....

Just as elated to hear the final bell of the academic year, will be thousands of teaching staff and classroom assistants.

They will be in desperate need of some end of term TLC and where better to find this but at the peaceful and calming environment of Ragdale Hall in Leicestershire.

Weary teachers can trade a squeaky board marker for a soft fluffy robe and a massage couch!

Ragdale Hall has a varied range of spa days (<http://www.ragdalehall.co.uk/day-packages.cfm>) and spa breaks (<http://www.ragdalehall.co.uk/spa-breaks.cfm>) to suit every taste and pocket and award winning facilities in which to switch off and chill out in.
