(<http://www.marksandspencer.com/Shoes-Womens/b/43126030>) means women everywhere can find that perfect New Year's Eve outfit whilst avoiding the busy high street.

With just the click of a mouse women can view stylish dresses in a range of sizes, from petite to plus sizes like the Autograph Occasions Sleeveless Satin Prom Dress.

The newly-launched Autograph Italian Exclusive shoe range offers luxurious leather shoes handcrafted in Italy for £129. With built-in Insolia technology these statement party shoes also provide a more comfortable wear for all-night dancing.

More importantly, by opting for something unavailable in stores, women can reduce the risk of same-outfit embarrassment with other party-goers and snap up something exclusive!
