

The Only Way Is Lapland

Submitted by: TUI UK

Tuesday, 20 December 2011

The Only Way Is Lapland

What better way to spend Christmas than in Lapland, the number one festive holiday destination and the home of Santa himself. And who better to test it out than The Only Way Is Essex gang. Joey Essex, Chloe Sims, Lauren Pope, Mario Falcone and Lauren Goodger spent four jam-packed days ticking off every Yuletide treat.

Travelling with Thomson, the cast stayed in the gorgeous Log Cabins at the Snow Elf Hotel & Apartments in Yllas. Each cabin comes with your very own log fire and sauna. Yllas gives you a taste of Lappish lifestyle as the resort is completely unspoilt and surrounded by beautiful snow covered fields and lush pine forests – no Sugar Hut in sight!

During their trip the cast stopped off at the jaw-droppingly beautiful Ice Hotel in the popular Snow Village, visited the Husky Farm for a magical husky sleigh ride and then delivered their Christmas wish lists to the man himself at Santa's grotto.

Thomson offers three night holidays to Kitilla, Lapland staying at the 4T Snow Elf Hotel and Apartments on a bed and breakfast basis from £699 per adult and £489 per child. Prices based on two people sharing and include flights and transfers departing from London Gatwick, East Midlands or Manchester on 2nd December 2012. To find out more about this holiday please visit www.thomson.co.uk or call 0871 231 4691.

Thomson offers daytrips to Kitilla, Lapland (<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/europe/finland/lapland/holidays-lapland.html>) from £519 per adult and £359 per child. Prices based on flights and transfers departing from London Gatwick on 8th December 2012. To find out more about this holiday please visit www.thomson.co.uk or call 0871 231 4691

The Only Way Is Essexmas airs Tuesday 20th December 2011 at 10pm on ITV2

For further information about Lapland please contact
Laura Woods at laura.woods@tui-uk.co.uk or call 01582 648 730