St Christopher's Inns – providers of backpacker hostel and budget hotel accommodation across Europe – have released discounts exclusive to previous customers – travelling to London for the 2012 Olympics.

Duncan Robertson, Digital and Communications Director said: "It's great to have the opportunity to reward our loyal customers with deals that offer superb value for money, during this incredible sporting event."

The exclusive and competitive Olympic accommodation offers will be available to loyal customers of St Christopher's Inns throughout February 2012. As of March 1, 2012, the deals will be made available to the wider public.

St Christopher's Inns are part of Beds and Bars Ltd, a leading operator of tourist accommodation and entertainment venues in Europe with 26 backpacker hostels, bars, nightclubs, and restaurants in seven countries.

Recently opened venues include the Mosaic House hostel and hotel in Prague, and La Rotonde bar in brasserie in Paris. Additional accommodation and bar venues are currently under construction in Barcelona and Paris.
