The World's Longest Running Flower Show will once again soon be upon us – and we have tickets to give away!

The Shrewsbury Flower Show is this year celebrating its 125th event, on 10 and 11 August, with special guest, celebrity TV chef James Martin! The show offers marquees and stalls full of beautiful blooms, vegetables and artisan food. Visitors can pick up tips with cookery demonstrations from James, and green-fingered visitors will enjoy gardening demonstrations from TV gardener Chris Beardshaw. There will also be 12 hours of live arena entertainment, perfect for all the family – topped off with an awe-inspiring firework extravaganza!

We have a number of pairs of tickets to giveaway, at a value of £40.00 per pair.

Each pair of tickets allows entry for two adults into the Show, on either Friday 10 or Saturday 11 August. Full details on Shrewsbury Flower Show can be found at <http://www.shrewsburyflowershow.org.uk/>

Unfortunately we are not able to provide accommodation or any extras, this is for tickets only.

Anybody who would like to give away tickets to Shrewsbury Flower Show should contact Beccy Law at shrewsburyflowershow@seal.uk.com or on 01743 234 224.
