

The Famous Diamond Jubilee Queen Cake Sculpture

Submitted by: The Cake Store

Friday, 25 May 2012

The famous Diamond Jubilee Queen Cake (<http://www.thecakestore.co.uk/diamond-jubilee-queen-cake/>), which appeared with Holly and Phil on ITV This Morning, The Graham Norton Show and the Ideal Home Exhibition, has finally come to rest in its home town of Sydenham, London. It can be seen in our fabulous cake showroom.

The news is that The Cake Store (<http://www.thecakestore.co.uk/>) has since been invited to create an amazing display of cakes in Harrods (<http://www.thecakestore.co.uk/the-queens-diamond-jubilee-display/>) Knightsbridge store window to commemorate The Queens Diamond Jubilee.

We have also just launched a brand new, amazing website (<http://www.thecakestore.co.uk/>), with over 900 celebration cakes that can be personalised to suit any occasion. We have some wonderful ideas for street party cakes (<http://www.thecakestore.co.uk/jubilee-cakes/>).

Being a small business, with a very enthusiastic team, please help us by reviewing our new website and helping us let people know.....I'm afraid we can only afford to pay for generous write-ups in cake!

Take a look at our incredibly talented team (<http://www.thecakestore.co.uk/cake-gallery/>) and their portfolio of skills.

For more information please contact our press office here (<http://thecakestore.co.uk/press-office/>) or email tim@thecakestore.com