

Doktor Power is Which? July Best Buy Oven Cleaner

Submitted by: John Mills (JML)

Tuesday, 19 June 2012

Doktor Power is Which? July Best Buy Oven Cleaner

As the warm weather improves many will start thinking about giving their oven or barbecue a clean. JML customers certainly know how to look after theirs as the consumer brand reports that they have sold enough Dr Power Oven Cleaner to clean 500,000 barbecues and ovens. The product which is considered a miracle worker by many, including Which?, who have just awarded it a coveted Best Buy status in their July issue.

Which? gave it a 72% rating as it topped the table ahead of other rivals.

“This was the best oven cleaner overall in our group test of oven cleaners. Doktor Power Oven Cleaner is a thick gel, which gave great results on our baking sheet, wire rack and oven door that were coated in baked on grime.”

Cleaning the oven or barbecue is often regarded as the worst chore in the house. This powerful and biodegradable cleaner leaves your oven looking like new, removing the most stubborn baked-on fat and oil. It doesn't have any arcid smell and you don't need any elbow grease! You just pour it on, soak for 4 hours and then wipe away.

Don't stand for grease and burnt-on bits; just reach for Doktor Power Oven Cleaner. It retails at £4.99 from ASDA, Homebase and Robert Dyas.

-Ends-

For further information, please contact:

JONATHAN O'CONNOR

Tel: 0207 691 3876

E Mail: press@jmlgroup.co.uk