Anglian Home Improvements is offering one lucky person a £10,000 garden makeover (<http://bit.ly/MRIsiT>) with TV garden expert David Domoney to celebrate the opening of this year's RHS Hampton Court Palace Flower Show (<http://www.anglianhome.co.uk/hampton-court-flower-show>) on 3rd July.

The prize draw to win an inspiring day with David Domoney and his team of Garden Angels is free to enter at <http://www.anglianhome.co.uk/hampton-court-flower-show>. The team will help to transform the winner's garden, advising on best plants and layout, tidying the existing plot and spending up to £2,500 on plants, trees and ornaments to fit in with David's garden design advice.

Currently appearing on ITV's Love Your Garden with Alan Titchmarsh, David Domoney is hosting the Hampton Grapevine Theatre Marquee at the Hampton Court Palace Flower Show in partnership with conservatory, door and window double glazing specialist Anglian Home Improvements (<http://bit.ly/Anglian-home-improvements>).

The Hampton Grapevine Theatre

(<http://www.rhs.org.uk/Shows-Events/RHS-Hampton-Court-Palace-Flower-Show/2012/Featured-articles/Hampton-Court-Grap>) will be a hub of activity throughout the week, entertaining and informing visitors through a series of live, interactive shows. A team of top garden design experts will provide hints and tips for gardens (<http://blog.anglianhome.co.uk/category/garden-news/>), conservatories, plants and outdoor living, plus celebrities Bill Oddie, John Craven, Adam Henson and Toby Buckland will join David throughout the show to chat about gardening and answer selected questions sent in by Twitter. To submit a question for consideration by David to ask during the Celebrity of the Day feature, send a tweet using the hashtag #HCgrapevine.

Speaking from the show, David Domoney said (<http://www.daviddomoney.com/>), "I am delighted to be working with Anglian Home Improvements once again following last year's sensational award-winning 'Naked Garden' and the TV series 'Garden ER' on Channel 5. We have joined forces for the RHS Hampton Court Palace Flower Show (<http://www.rhs.org.uk/Shows-Events/RHS-Hampton-Court-Palace-Flower-Show/2012>) to create an entertaining central feature, which will include live theatre shows, celebrity guests, and hints and ideas for your garden."

David will be providing video garden tips from the show on popular topics such as 'what plants to grow in a conservatory' and 'creating kerbside appeal for your property'. To view the tips or to find out more about what's happening at the Grapevine Theatre, please visit <http://www.anglianhome.co.uk/hampton-court-flower-show> or follow #HCgrapevine or @anglianhome on Twitter.

In addition to the opportunity to win a garden makeover, Anglian Home Improvements is running another prize draw during the show to win £1,000 in cash, plus visitors can get an extra £200 off home improvements with Anglian. More information and full terms and conditions for the prize draws and special show offer can be found at the Grapevine Theatre or by visiting the Anglian Home Improvements website.
