Tulisa called on Jamie Stevens and his sister, head colourist Tasha to transform her hair to blonde after her first attempt turned a patchy ginger! Tulisa was desperate to get her locks to a champagne sandy blonde, so Tasha got to work on delivering the multi tonal hue. Tasha said, "This colour is an expensive champagne blonde and suits Tulisa's skin tone more than a platinum white would. She's got warm skin and beautiful blue eyes and this really complements her look, it's a lovely classy shade."

The colour took over 6 hours of correcting, cleansing, deep conditioning treatments and colouring; Tulisa is thrilled with the style and has been tweeting pics of herself.

Jamie, resident hairdresser on The X Factor, then cut Tulisa's hair and extensions specialist Harry put in some extra pieces to complete the look.

Jamie Stevens' London salon is at 9 Russell Gardens, Kensington, London W14 8EZ Appts: 020 7371 1944
