London – 20 July 2012 – PTS Consulting PLC, the world class international IT Consulting and Project Management firm, today announced that the company has been ranked in the inaugural Sunday Times HSBC International Track 200. PTS Consulting PLC ranked 41st thanks to a year on year average increase in sales of 72% outside of the UK between 2008 and 2011.

Founded in 1983, PTS Consulting PLC provides its clients with IT Professional Services, Managed Services and Resourcing solutions; specialising in Corporate Relocations and Data Centres. With 17 offices in financial centres that include London, Tokyo and New York, PTS Consulting PLC provides services to customers such as Morgan Stanley, RBS, the Financial Times and the University of Cambridge. PTS Consulting PLC has successfully delivered high-value, vendor independent solutions to its clients in 270 cities in over 75 countries and in some of the most demanding environments.

The Sunday Times HSBC International Track 200 ranks Britain's mid-market private companies with the fastest-growing international sales, measured over their latest two years of available accounts. The International Track 200 is an expansion of our International Track 100 league table, which has been published for the past two years, and the minimum sales threshold has been increased from £5m to £25m.

Ian Henley, head of corporate banking, Commercial Banking Europe at HSBC, the title sponsor of the league table, commented: "It is a massive boost to confidence to see so many privately-owned British companies making such a positive contribution to the UK economy, despite tough trading conditions."
