

London: Capital of Kindness

Submitted by: Kindness UK

Thursday, 16 August 2012

The world came together for the Olympics, now London will again unite the world to discuss and promote kindness.

Kindness UK (<http://www.kindnessuk.com>) are soon to host the 7th General Assembly of the World Kindness Movement (<http://www.worldkindness.org.sg>) at their Cricklewood headquarters from the 18th-20th September 2012. The conference will bring together kindness movements from all over the world including Australia, China, Dubai, India, Italy, Japan, Korea, Singapore, the UK, and the USA. The delegates will be joined by selected guests and members of the public over the 3 day period. The Worshipful Mayor (<http://www.brent.gov.uk/brentmayor.nsf/Pages/LBB-3>) of the London Borough of Brent is due to open the proceedings on the evening of Tuesday 18th September and Dr David R. Hamilton PhD (<http://drdavidhamilton.com>), a world expert in Oxytocin (the 'happy hormone'), is due to present.

David Jamilly (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/David_Jamilly), founder of Kindness UK said: 'We are incredibly excited that London can once again be at the forefront of developing a brighter and kinder future'.

About Kindness UK:

Kindness UK (<http://www.kindnessuk.com>) is a non-monetary, humanitarian organisation with the sole endeavour of sharing, promoting and uniting kindness in all its forms (to people, the environment and the animal kingdom). They are currently in the process of publishing several academic papers, conducting a national survey on kindness and distributing a Kindness Pack to primary schools. Kindness UK (<http://www.kindnessuk.com>) are affiliated with the World Kindness Movement (<http://www.worldkindness.org.sg>), which includes 18 member nations and aims to inspire individuals towards greater kindness and to connect nations to create a kinder world.
