Exclusive London Eye Music Performance & Event at Union Chapel - London's No 1 Live Music Venue

Have you ever wanted to watch a band whilst they perform over 400ft in the air, on one of London's most famous landmarks?

Folkestral band 'Buswell' have been given special permission to hold an exclusive performance in a capsule on the EDF Energy London Eye on 11th September 2012 at 6.30pm, and are inviting a few lucky members of the public to join them for this unique experience.

The performance on the EDF Energy London Eye is part of the 121212 Underground Orchestra Challenge, which involves Shaun Buswell forming an orchestra from strangers he meets whilst travelling on the London Underground. This show, along with a performance at award-winning venue Union Chapel on 14th September, are some of the exclusive public outings that the orchestra and Buswell will perform together throughout 2012, culminating in a finale at a top venue in London on 12th December 2012 (to be revealed at the Union Chapel show).

The EDF Energy London Eye event will feature 8-10 musicians, who will be performing Buswell's unique style of Folkestral music with a mix of violins, violas, flutes, guitars, keyboards and percussion. The event will be filmed in Hi-Definition, giving the winners a chance to get an exclusive DVD of their experience.

Now is your chance to experience this once in a lifetime opportunity to see the sights of London up high whilst listening to a live band.

Win tickets to be part of this select audience on a capsule on the EDF Energy London Eye whilst the band Buswell (www.buswellmusic.com) and members of the 121212 Underground Orchestra perform. Tickets are available to be won through a £1 raffle* via www.121212.org.uk/raffle with the proceeds going to Music Alive, a Wiltshire based charity which provides a safe and encouraging environment where disabled people can make and enjoy music in all its forms.

*Closing date is at 4pm on Monday 3rd September and the winning numbers for each draw will be chosen at random by Rogavi.com using a computerised system from all entries received by the closing date. The winners of the Raffle prizes will be notified by email and named on the Website. Unsuccessful ticket holders will not be notified. The winning tickets will only be valid on the EDF Energy London Eye for the capsule with Buswell at 6:30pm on 11th September 2012.
