Chak 89, London's Award winning Restaurant (<http://www.chak89.com/restaurant.php>) got all musical on Saturday when singing legend Anuradha Paudwal turned up to the famous Indian eatery for a meal with a couple of her friends.

Anuradha, looking great and relaxed, enjoyed the night with her friends and even joined in with other diners, giving one diner the best Birthday present she could have wished for.

Anuradha, who has a portfolio of hit songs in the Bollywood industry, overwhelmed by the decor and ambience at Chak 89, sat humbly with her friends and tucked into an array of pure vegetarian starters including a variety of Chak 89 chaats.

Chak 89 known for its traditional Indian cuisine and elegant ambience were only too happy to have the legend Anuradha dine at the restaurant and to be added to Chak 89's celebrity wall.

We asked Frank, the owner of Chak 89, what he thought about Anuradha signing the celebrity wall and he replied, "To have a legend like Anuradha sign our wall only makes me more happy to see how far we have come since we started and having stars like Anuradha coming to Chak 89 only makes me feel honoured. Sooner or later I will have to look at having another celebrity wall; this one's running out of space"
