Award winning Indian Restaurant Chak 89 struck gold when Mo Farah, the 2012 Olympic hero and Gold medals winner turned up to have a meal.

Mo Farah, who won two gold medals for the 5,000 and 10,000 meters at this year's London Olympics, came to Chak 89 with a friend after being invited by Chak 89's owner Frank Khalid who is a friend of Mo Farah.

Frank had invited Mo to Chak 89 for a meal as a way of appreciating Mo's achievement at the London Olympics, he also asked Mo to bring his Gold Medals to see them up close. Completely gobsmacked, Frank Khalid was delighted when Mo produced his medals and showed them to Frank and other guests.

Being a curry lover, Mo Farah and his friend quietly tucked into their meal, praising Chak 89's signature dish, Chak Chicken Special as, "Outstanding!" After his meal, Mo happily signed the Chak 89 Celebrity Wall and posed for some pictures with other happy and surprised diners.

Chak 89 known for its portfolio of celebrity diners from all over the world was only too happy to say

"Chak 89 is A Spice above the Rest"
