Cambridge. 25 Oct. 2012. - Yet again it's time for Advent Calendars. Chocolate photo Advent calendars (<http://fotoinsight.co.uk/calendars-chocolate-advent-calendar.html>) are sold each year only during the run-up to Christmas, which ensures that the chocolate is fresh. Those who want to make a truly unique Advent calendar with own pictures (<http://fotoinsight.co.uk/calendars-chocolate-advent-calendar.html>) will find help at FotoInsight; starting in October, freshly filled chocolate Advent calendars with custom photo-print will again be available online.

Anyone not wanting to serve their loved ones with an off the shelf Advent calendar, preferring to create their one design with their own graphic or picture, perhaps reviving the best moments of the year, will find this easy to do at FotoInsight. The online photo service offers to print a digital photograph onto a chocolate filled Advent calendar. The Advent calendars start on the first of December and its 24 little doors conceal tasty milk chocolate balls in festive wrapping. Those who have a nice picture to print can live up a loved ones Advent with their very personal Advent calendar (<http://fotoinsight.co.uk/calendars-chocolate-advent-calendar.html>).
