Receiving national recognition from both the industry & travellers alike, North Wales' (<http://www.visitwales.co.uk>) Bodysgallen Hall is now the proud owner of the title 'AA Hotel of the Year for Wales 2012-2013'. This award comes on the back of recent exceptional traveller ratings on TripAdvisor making Bodysgallen Hall the ideal hotel in North Wales for a unique break.

The AA Hospitality Awards saw the great and good of the country's hospitality industry come together to celebrate not only the amazing achievements of the individuals and establishments receiving recognition for outstanding excellence in their field but also 20 years of the iconic AA Restaurant Guide.

In addition, TripAdvisor, a leading traveller feedback website recently announced that Bodysgallen Hall & Spa received a rating of 4.5 placing them amongst the best in the UK. The Certificate of Excellence awards businesses that consistently earn top ratings from TripAdvisor travellers.

If it's history, relics and a unique coastline you desire then North Wales ticks all the boxes, add to that a selection of World Heritage Sites including Castles (<http://www.visitwales.co.uk/things-to-do-in-wales/tour-operators/short-break-itineraries/the-secret-castles-of-wales/>) at Conwy, Caernarfon, Harlech and Beaumaris and you have plenty of exploring to do. Complement the entire experience by spending time at Wales' finest hotel, owned by the National Trust – Bodysgallen Hall.

Ideally situated as a base for exploring and discovering some of Europe's most attractive scenery, including views encompassing the sweep of the Snowdonia range of mountains, Bodysgallen Hall & Spa is a destination within itself. Standing in over 200 acres of its own parkland to the south of Llandudno with 13th century origins, Bodysgallen Hall provides all that is best in country house hospitality.

A total of 31 spacious bedrooms split between the house (15 bedrooms) and cottage suites (16) are available. Each of the bedrooms has been individually furnished and decorated with antique furniture and works of art enjoying glorious views over Bodysgallen's parkland or gardens. Several cottage suites benefit from their very own private gardens.
