British Airways has launched a selection of American holidays on ba.com with the deals available to book until November 13 and valid for travel between November and March.

Top of the offers available is a fly-drive holiday to Tampa, (based on return flights from Gatwick and Avis inclusive car hire for seven days between January 1 and March 24) where the sights of Florida can be explored including its great beaches and national parks. Travellers can also take a walk on the wild side on a visit to the Everglades with a fly-drive to Miami from, flying from Heathrow.

Classic city breaks in Boston (http://www.britishairways.com/travel/city-breaks-boston/public/en_gb) include a three night stay at the three star Midtown hotel with return flights while holidays in New York (http://www.britishairways.com/travel/holidays-in-new-york/public/en_gb) include accommodation at the three star Wellington Hotel with flights. Both city breaks include flights from Heathrow, room only accommodation and are based on travel between January 7 and 31.

Seven night holidays in San Diego

(http://www.britishairways.com/travel/holidays-in-san-diego/public/en_gb) are also available, staying at the three star Mission Valley Resort (room only) with return flights from Heathrow for travel between January 7 and 31. The Californian city offers great surfing spots, golfing and shopping, as well as SeaWorld and San Diego Zoo to cater for families.

The dozens of great British Airways American holidays can be secured online from as little as £150 deposit per booking when booked through ba.com/deposits. Deposits are available on 2013 holidays and the final balance must be paid ten weeks prior to departure.

All British Airways flights include a generous free luggage allowance, free on-line check-in, seat selection 24 hours before departure and complimentary food and drink on board.

The USA holiday campaign ends November 13, 2012.
