

Russell Kane and UrbanPup.com Unzipped

Submitted by: UrbanPup.com

Monday, 12 November 2012

Everyone loves involving their loveable pooch in everything they do, as much as possible, and it turns out celebrity owners and their dogs are no different. Colin, the Pug, joined his hilarious owner, Russell Kane, on stage at the Riverside studios for his final BBC 3 show of Britain Unzipped.

Colin was seen sporting a rather cool blue hoodie, a gift from UrbanPup.com (<http://www.urbanpup.com>). Russell has referred to his 'council estate' roots before so perhaps this is why he favors this 'street' look for young Colin. The magnificent blue against Colin's glossy black coat turned out to be the perfect combination!

There may have also been a whisper that Russell's feline friends, Keith and Wayne, were a tad put out because Colin was looking so ruggedly chic and taking centre stage (meow)!

Well, what can we say UrbanPup.com (<http://www.urbanpup.com>) are the best at what they do in making Pup's of the World look like stars in their own right.

Denis Kelly, Managing Director of UrbanPup.com (<http://www.urbanpup.com>) said "We love seeing our clothes on famous and non-famous dogs alike, but we do feel very honored when items from our collection are chosen to take centre stage at such high profile events."

Contact Denis Kelly for more information - email: denis.kelly@urbanpup.com or tel: +44 (0) 2895 812107
Request press products samples, click here (<http://press.urbanpup.com/samples.asp>)
nb. press samples are free & delivered next day if requested before 3pm GMT