KIWI HOUSE POP-UP RETURNS

Kiwi House is re-inventing itself as a regular fixture in London following the success of the national house culture during London 2012. This time it is returning for a one day Christmas bash on 1st December 2012 to showcase All Blacks v England.

The next Kiwi House pop-up, run and promoted by the same agency that brought Kiwi House to London2012, will take place around the All Blacks vs England rugby game, which will be shown live. From 12 midday rugby fans will have the chance to watch the All Blacks take on England on a massive screen in the comfort of the cosy high top tent set up within the heart of the City at the Artillery Gardens at the HAC at the pop-up Kiwi House. All guests will be able to soak up the atmosphere with New Zealand wine, food and beer along with the best of Kiwi live entertainment to get everyone in the party mood.

From 7pm the Kiwi Christmas party will begin with entertainment including fast riser New Zealand band Melic, winners of The Playmusic 2012 Unsigned Awards, and well-known NZ comedian Jarred Christmas. Some of London's best Kiwi DJs will then take guests into the night. Kiwi House is set to be the best Southern Hemisphere Christmas celebration this side of the equator with an indoor party to remember and to keep the UK December chill out!

The return of Kiwi House is a response to the immense popularity of New Zealand's national house during the London 2012 Olympic Games. This time, the event will be located in the heart of The City of London at The Artillery Gardens at the HAC, Finury Street, off Chiswell Street, London EC1Y 4TWT. Kiwi House will make all Kiwis feel right at home and proud to bring their friends along to enjoy the best of its country's food, beer and entertainment. The Artillery Gardens sets itself apart from all the other City venues and wows everyone who walks through the gates. With its six-acre garden, and the elegant, historic Armoury House as a spectacular backdrop, it offers an oasis of green in a City of glass and steel. The location is within 5-10 minutes walk of Moorgate, Old Street and Liverpool Street Tube Stations.

Guests are invited to purchase either Day tickets, Evening Tickets or All Day tickets. The three ticket options are available by following this link; <http://www.musicglue.com/kiwihousepopup/>
