Notes to Editors:

The Posh Shed Company build sheds to look as if they belong to your home and garden. When you are just looking for a space to put the garden tools and a bike there are hundreds of sheds available; but they all look the same. The Posh Shed Company have applied all their experience to come up with a range of high quality sheds that will stay dry inside, will be secure and above all, look good. All sheds are available in three sizes and a large range of colours. They can be delivered with assembly and installation instructions or can be installed by one of The Posh Shed Company's skilled craftsman as an additional service.
