Dubai, December 10, 2012 – The premier regional conference for telecom and finance leaders in the Middle East has announced that it will expand to include the North Africa region for its annual event in Dubai on April 23-24.

TMT Finance Middle East North Africa 2013 Conference and Awards (www.tmtfinance.com/mena), which takes place at Mina A' Salaam, Madinat Jumeirah Dubai, will gather key players from telecoms, media, technology, finance and advisory institutions to debate the latest opportunities for investment and partnerships across the region and globally. Now entering its 7th year the conference has established an excellent reputation for leading the dialogue on telecom growth strategies.

“We are delighted to expand the conference to feature key players from the North Africa region in 2013 as there are a number of important opportunities for investment and partnership,” commented Dominic Lowndes, Managing Editor, TMT Finance (www.tmtfinance.com) the event organisers. “Telecom operators globally are going through a critical period of change and it is more important than ever for them to collaborate with international leadership from industry, finance and advisory institutions”

The conference features a series of leadership panel debates, visionary keynote speeches and targeted networking session featuring industry CEOs, CFOs and strategy heads, global and regional sector heads from investment banks, investment houses, advisory businesses, regulators and policy makers.

Session themes for 2013 include: Telecom Leadership Round Table – CEO strategies for the next wave of growth; The Future of TMT – Delivering media and services; The M&A Panel – who will lead the next wave of mergers, joint ventures and partnerships? Telecom Policy Round Table – Stimulating growth and investment; Raising Finance; Investing in Fixed and Mobile Broadband; Infrastructure Sharing; Investing in New and Adjacent Markets and Corporate Governance and Risk.

“The 2013 programme reflects the exciting range of opportunities for investment and partnership both geographically and across industry sectors,” said Lowndes. “Telecom operators from the Middle East and North Africa region and their global financing and advisory partners will play a critical role in shaping the future of the industry.”

The TMT Finance Middle East North Africa conference is organised by TMT Finance with support from Booz & Company and Capital MSL with more sponsors to be announced shortly. TMT Finance announces the event as it continues to expand its internationally acclaimed portfolio of conferences in Africa, Asia, the Middle East and Europe. (www.tmtfinance.com).
