Burton has announced the winner of a prize draw launched in conjunction with the release of "Total Recall" on Blu-ray and DVD.

Tom Rotherham from Bolton was picked as the lucky winner from over 6500 entries, picking up the prize of a 40" LCD television and Blu-ray player. When he found out he won, Tom said: "Thanks a lot Burton! Great start to the New Year with my brand new TV and Blu-Ray player. I'm really looking forward to a shopping spree too."

Total Recall is a 2012 American dystopian science fiction action film where a factory worker, Douglas Quaid, begins to suspect that he is a spy after visiting Rekall - a company that provides its clients with implanted fake memories of a life they would like to have led - goes wrong and he finds himself on the run.

For a factory worker named Douglas Quaid, even though he's got a beautiful wife who he loves, the mind-trip sounds like the perfect vacation from his frustrating life - real memories of life as a super-spy might be just what he needs. But when the procedure goes horribly wrong, Quaid becomes a hunted man as he finds himself on the run from the police.

Total Recall was directed by Len Wiseman, written by Mark Bomback, James Vanderbilt, and Kurt Wimmer, and stars Colin Farrell, Kate Beckinsale, Jessica Biel, Bryan Cranston, John Cho, and Bill Nighy.

This film is a remake of the 1990 film of the same name, which featured Arnold Schwarzenegger as Douglas Quaid.
