

Blooming Marvellous Tours

Submitted by: Lucre Marketing Ltd

Tuesday, 19 February 2013

Great value green-fingered Easter breaks start from just £199 per person

Whether you're a gardening goddess, a foliage fanatic or you simply enjoy new cultural experiences, Leger Holidays' (<http://www.leger.co.uk/>) Springtime Bloom getaways are the ideal way to combine travel with a popular pastime and plenty of fresh air. And, with late deals now available on selected tours, there are some great deals to be had too!

Easter is a time to see nature at its best, and what better way to spend it than enjoying the breath-taking blooms of one of the world's most famous flower-growing regions, the Dutch Bulbfields. Even those without green fingers can't fail to be awestruck by the dazzling displays at the Keukenhof Park famed for its breath-taking horticultural displays; with its fields of hyacinths, tulips and daffodils you will encounter a floral fantasy that you'll remember for years to come.

Combining the wonders of nature with trips to the most beautiful parts of Holland or Belgium, including the spectacular city of Amsterdam, each tour also allows for a little independent sightseeing or shopping. Those who would prefer to take in the sights by boat can also enjoy take to the Dutch waterways by opting for one of Leger's cruise-based tours.

Prices for the Leger Holidays breaks start from just £199 per person for four days.

For full details of this or other tours offered by Leger Holidays log on to www.legerbreaks.info or call 0844 324 9256.