Theme Traders Red Nose Day Celebrity Treasure Hunt- Comic Relief 13th – 14th March 2013

Theme Traders, party planners are putting on The Theme Traders Red Nose Day Celebrity Treasure Hunt around our fabulous showrooms.

Celebrities will be guided around our Aladdin's cave by a giant walking red nose (hilarious) who will give them clues as to the location of the treasure. Each clue will lead to a red nose and red noses will contain anything from a donation of a mosquito net to a much needed vaccine for example, changing lives both in the UK, Africa and Worldwide.

Theme Traders will pledge up to £3000 to Comic Relief over a 2 day period from the 13th – 14th March. The more celebrities that take part, the more noses will be found and the more we can donate!

As a finale we will auction off a giant red nose signed by the celebrities that take part.

Our weird and wonderful showrooms will provide the perfect backdrop for the hunt leading celebrities through an overgrown jungle, into a traditional British beach set and even into a magical Wonderland filled with over sized toadstool and giant flowers. This will really make fantastic footage and photo opportunities.

Over the years we have built up a network of celebrity clients who we are excited about being involved in the challenge for such a great cause.

If any of your celebrity clients would like to participate we would be more than delighted to include them!

We really feel that it would be a fun, creative and different way of raising money for Comic Relief, and expect it will generate huge social media coverage through Twitter and also additional PR and press for Comic Relief and the celebrities that take part too.

As always Theme Traders, party planners will be creating a real party atmosphere, so calling all celebrities, come join us have fun and above all help raise money for Comic Relief 2013.
