- Winning Moves reveals new licensed games featuring the half-shell heroes -

Innovative games company, Winning Moves (<http://www.winningmoves.co.uk>), has given three family favourites the Turtle-treatment with officially-licensed Nickelodeon Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles editions of Top Trumps, MONOPOLY and Connect 4.

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles Top Trumps (RRP £3.99, ages 5+):

Learn the sewer secrets of Leonardo, Donatello, Raphael and Michelangelo with this new Top Trumps pack: Which of the Turtles has the most ninja know how? Is anyone a better leader than Leonardo? And can the brothers save New York from the Foot Clan?

Top Trumps has been a firm playground favourite since it first hit shop shelves in the late 1970s and to date, over 70million packs have been sold worldwide. Top Trumps produces hundreds of different packs on a huge variety of subject matter: from Dinosaurs to Baby Animals; Manchester United to Moshi Monsters and Hello Kitty to Top Gear. New licenses for Top Trumps this year include One Direction, Monsters University and now, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles!

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles Connect 4 (RRP £15.99, ages 6+):

The perfect game for any fan of the Turtles, this special edition of Connect 4 is the great classic game of 4-in-a-row with a Turtles twist: Turtle-counters for players to block each other's path! Drop in your counters and try to outdo your opponents - who'll be the first to get 4-in-a-row?!

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles MONOPOLY (RRP £29.99, ages 8+):

The Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles have moved out of New York and into the world of MONOPOLY! Travel around the board investing your money to try and bankrupt your opponents. Will you be as bold as Michelangelo, as smart as Donatello or as wise as Splinter as you build your empire?

All games are available to buy now on the High Street from a wide range of retailers including WH Smith, Toys R Us, Waterstones, Tesco, Asda, and John Lewis or widely available on line. All products are available to buy at www.winningmoves.co.uk (<http://www.winningmoves.co.uk>) and www.toptrumps.com (<http://www.toptrumps.com>)
