Exciting new lottery affiliate network, Affiliate Empire, has been turning a lot of heads in the industry lately and they continue to do so with the announcement of a £200 signup bonus for all new affiliates who join up during the month of July and bring more than 20 players in the first two weeks.

CEO of Affiliate Empire Jennifer Houghton says: "The performance of Affiliate Empire in July broke all records and we just wanted to share this success with a new generation of Affiliates."

Affiliate Empire's top performing campaign is for the lottery syndicate entry website BigFatLottos.com (<http://www.bigfatlottos.com/>) who offer people the chance to sign up for bi-weekly syndicates in some of the world's top lotteries including Euromillions and the American Lotteries; Mega Millions and Powerball which cannot normally be played outside America. Last month, affiliates from all over the world were flocking to the chance to market the massive £157 Million Euromillions jackpot.

Affiliates who are interested in snatching up this bonus simply need to go to affiliateempire.com (<http://affiliateempire.com/>) and register for an account or contact support@affiliateempire.com.
