The online gambling specialists at Super Casino have looked into Q3 revenue figures posted by Playtech, which reveal a 13% rise from 2012.

The world's largest online gambling software supplier, which provide services for the industry's leading online casinos, such as Super Casino and Jackpot 247, has revealed revenue of €90.6 million (approximately £75.3 million) in the third quarter of 2013. The firm also recorded a 21% rise in casino revenue to €46.8 (£38.92) and has expressed it is confident of further growth. During the first month of Q4, Playtech has recorded average daily revenue that is 12% higher than the corresponding period from 2012, and up more than 5% on the 3rd quarter of the year.

Super Casino is best known for the wide variety of casino games it offers its loyal customers, including casino slots, roulette and blackjack games online (<http://www.supercasino.com/games/blackjack>). To ensure a high level of quality for each and every user, all games are powered by Playtech and tested by TST, an independent tester of casino software. Naturally the team at Super Casino were pleased to hear of Playtech's success. A representative shares their thoughts on the subjects.

"It seems as though Playtech are going from strength to strength and we're not surprised as they are the world's leading online gaming operator. At Super Casino it's very important to us that we partner organisations like Playtech so that we can continue to operate to the highest standards, and that includes offering casino-certified roulette wheels, real playing cards, trained croupiers and games which are never computer generated, pixelated or pre-recorded."

With live roulette games broadcast on Channel 5 and Sky channel 862, Super casino is the longest running and most popular online TV casino in the world. Famous for providing a realistic gaming experience online, Supercasino.com offers games to suit a variety of tastes, including roulette, blackjack, card games, table and video poker as well as a selection of Super Casino slot games (<http://www.supercasino.com/games/slots>) and arcade games.
