The online gambling specialists at Super Casino have responded to news of 2013's European Poker Tour Prague.

It has been reported

(<http://www.cardplayer.com/poker-news/16585-julian-track-wins-2013-european-poker-tour-prague-main-event>) by Card Player that the winner of the tournament, Julian Track, earned €725,708 from the tournament. Track's opponent, Georgios Sotiropoulos took second place with a total winning of €700,000. It was also reported that the UK's Stephen Chidwick finished in third place overall, with a win of €378,000 which was the largest in his professional career. A reported total of 1007 entries into the tournament were recorded this year, with a prize pool of €4,883,950 for the '€5300 no-limit hold'em main event'.

As one of the leading online casinos offering a wide range of casino games, including video poker, the experts at Super Casino were interested in the recent poker tournament win and took the opportunity to discuss the popularity of poker. A representative for the company shared their thoughts:

"It is welcome news that the tournament received so many entries, highlighting the popularity of the game. Tournaments such as these are welcome in the industry as they help to raise the profile of poker and further increase its popularity.

While live tournaments such as these can be exciting, playing poker online (<http://www.supercasino.com/games/video-poker>) is becoming an increasingly popular alternative. Playing video poker online is a new and innovative way to play this popular game, and with recent statistics suggesting that the popularity of online gambling is increasing, we are looking forward to following developments in the industry and seeing if the popularity of online poker continues to grow."

With live roulette games (<http://www.supercasino.com/games/roulette>) broadcast on Channel 5 and Sky channel 862, Super Casino is the longest running and most popular online TV casino in the world. Famous for providing a realistic gaming experience online, Supercasino.com offers games to suit a variety of tastes, including roulette, blackjack, card games, table and video poker as well as a selection of slots and arcade games.
