Seveer, one of the leading creative video production companies in Manchester has appointed search engine marketing specialists Banc Media to increase its search engine visibility and website traffic.

Seveer (<http://www.seveermedia.com/>) specialises in creating exceptional video that questions client's briefs in order to deliver a first class product that challenges the ordinary and delivers the extraordinary.

By appointing Banc Media (<http://www.bancmedia.com/>) to review their website and position in search engines, the company intends to be more visible to potential customers and gain a greater brand awareness in their market.

Stuart Reeves, Managing Director, Seveer said, "We know of Banc's impressive reputation for delivering outstanding return on investment from SEO and we are confident that they will achieve the same outcome for Seveer."

Martin Cozens, Managing Director of Banc Media, said, "Due to the exceptional video production quality that Seveer produce, we will be able to attract many more customers for Seveer as we expose their website, brand and product to many more people searching on Google."
