Natural & Organic Products Europe, Europe's leading annual business event for the natural and organic products industries and the Natural Health International Beauty Awards 2016 is pleased to announce the continuation of its successful partnership for the third year running.

This unique partnership will see the popular Natural Beauty & Spa Theatre play host to the annual Natural Health International Beauty Awards ceremony at 11.30am on Monday 18 April 2016.

Already renowned for attracting a 'who's who' of specialist beauty and personal care buyers, Natural & Organic Products Europe saw over 9300 attendees from the natural health, beauty, food and eco-living sectors, amongst them buyers from household names such as Amazon, Boots, Champneys, Feelunique.com, Fenwick, Holland & Barrett, John Bell & Croyden, Waitrose, Ocado, NBTY Europe, Harrods, Superdrug, Planet Organic, Whole Foods Market, Tesco, Selfridges, Harvey Nichols, and Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts.

"Over the years, the show's Natural Beauty & Spa exhibitors have always featured prominently in the Natural Health International Beauty Awards – so there is already a real synergy between our two brands.

The Natural Health International Beauty Awards' focus on promoting the best choice of natural, organic, ethical, and chemical-free beauty essentials to end consumers makes it a great fit for the show, as ultimately these beauty brands need to reach the key industry buyers and retailers that Natural & Organic Products Europe annually attracts," explains event manager Carol Dunning.

"We are very pleased to be working with Natural & Organic Products Europe again, for what is our third successive year," agrees Natural Health magazine editor, Ceri James. "Earlier this year, we celebrated our 10th anniversary at our awards ceremony at Natural & Organic Products Europe, which attracted over 100 winners and highly commended brands. With winners such as Liz Earle, Elemis and Marks & Spencer in attendance, this is the kind of star-studded industry event that can't be missed."

Now in its 11th year, the Natural Health International Beauty Awards include more than 50 categories and over 100 awards. Judges for 2016 include The Beauty Bible author and founder of Green & Blacks Jo Fairley, president of the Complementary Medical Association Jayney Goddard and natural hair care expert Daniel Galvin Jnr. Reader-voted categories include best online retailer, best department store and Holistic Hero.
