EASY wins key industry recognition for the contribution of its EASY for Exchange at the premier annual event for the UK storage industry, the Storage Awards

Bury St Edmunds, UK, June 21, 2016 – EASY SOFTWARE UK (<http://www.easysoftware.co.uk>), Europe's leading supplier of document management solutions, has once again triumphed at this year's Storage Awards, coming top against stiff competition in the 'Bench Test Product of the Year' category with its EASY for Exchange (<http://www.easysoftware.co.uk/products/easy-exchange/>) solution.

EASY for Exchange supports automatic, rule-based and user-centric archiving scenarios, and offers customers increased data security and compliance peace of mind – and by integration with the latest Microsoft technologies, EASY for Exchange supports users in implementing comprehensive e-mail management and archiving solutions.

Howard Frear, Director of Sales and Marketing at EASY, commented: "We're thrilled to have won a prestigious 'Storrie' Award for the tenth year running; we'd like to thank everyone who voted for us and, of course, everyone who uses our solutions.

"By working with the product, customers are 'winning', too – as EASY for Exchange means that increasing amounts of data is no longer a challenge, because the software simply evolves with the enterprise as it grows.

"This brings EASY's total number of Storries to eleven over ten years, which is very gratifying. But of course, we won't be resting on our laurels – we'll be trying even harder to keep up the good work for the next ten years to come."

The Storage Awards, running for 13 years, includes 30 categories which are voted for by thousands of Storage Magazine readers to reward the outstanding products, services and people in the industry. The 2016 Storage Awards were held in London's Grand Connaught Rooms in London's Covent Garden on June 16th.
