At Oracle OpenWorld 2016, Inoapps (www.inoapps.com) has won both the EMEA and Global Oracle Excellence Awards for Specialized Partner of the Year, in SaaS Cloud Transformation.

The Awards encourage innovation by Oracle PartnerNetwork (OPN) members, who use Oracle's products and technology, to create value for customers and generate new business potential. In winning the awards, Inoapps, an Oracle Platinum Partner, is recognised for its commitment to deliver innovative, specialized solutions and services based on Oracle software and hardware. Commenting on the Awards Andy Bird, CEO at Inoapps noted:

"We are absolutely delighted to be awarded both EMEA and Global Oracle Excellence Award for Specialized Partner of the Year in SaaS Cloud Transformation. Inoapps was presented the Awards for demonstrating outstanding and innovative solutions based on Oracle products, including: Financials, HCM, Procurement and Projects Cloud Applications."

"These awards are also a reflection of the numerous success stories we have delivered across Europe, the US and especially in the APAC region. It also reinforces Inoapps' position as the implementation partner of choice for Global companies seeking the transformational opportunities available from Oracle Cloud Applications. We look forward to building on this success, and winning more awards, as we continue to grow."
