There's a new app in town that makes exciting adventures across the globe available to buy and sell. Envago www.envagoapp.com is a free app (available on iTunes) that allows those seeking adventures to search by category of adventure (Air, Earth, Water, Rock & Ice or Volunteer), listed activities or by map to access a range of providers meeting their needs.

Adventure Planners can become verified within the app, then create a profile, events and adventures for people to buy. Activities range from thrills like white water rafting, adventures like trekking in Uganda to 'voluntourism'- community based activities like volunteering projects in Nepal.

With new year just around the corner, Envago can help users to keep those resolutions to see more of the world, get more active, or even to turn their passion into their reality by becoming an Adventure Planner!

Envago is available as a free iPhone app to download from the Apple store. The Android version will follow shortly.

Once adventurers have found a suitable activity they can book and pay through the app. Money is held securely in Escrow until the adventure takes place, when it is transferred to the planner. Once booked, adventurers can connect with others on the same activity through the app.
