EDITOR'S NOTES

Top Trumps is the classic trumps card game that's been known and loved since the 1970s, combining play and discovery for children of all ages. In 1999, Top Trumps was re-discovered in the dusty archives of the world's biggest games company, Hasbro, and brought back to life by Tom Liddell and the team at Winning Moves. Since then over 80 million packs have been sold worldwide, and the game now features top characters from Disney, Marvel Comics, Harry Potter and Star Wars. For gameplay demonstrations:
