Key Appointments Strengthen Industrial and Global Technology & Services Practices

Heidrick & Struggles (Nasdaq: HSII), a premier provider of executive search, leadership consulting and culture shaping services worldwide, has appointed principals Hannah Joyce and Adreas Sjostrom in London.

Joyce joins the GTS practice to focus on digital transformation. Working with boards, CEOs, founders and investors, she works across a range of industries including gaming, consumer internet, fintech, media and on-demand, social and mobile. Prior to joining Heidrick & Struggles, Joyce worked for an international executive search firm as a member of the Internet and Digital practice, and previously was a senior consultant at a boutique firm specializing in software and IT services appointments.

Sjostrom joins Heidrick's industrial practice to specialise in manufacturing, capital equipment, process and automation. He advises on CEO, COO and board searches as well as placing senior executives in general management, operations, engineering and sales & marketing. Prior to joining Heidrick & Struggles, Andreas was with another global executive search firm as part of their industrial practice, first in Stockholm and then in London.

"Heidrick & Struggles is increasingly a magnet for the best talent in our industry. The addition of Hannah Joyce and Andreas Sjostrom underscores not only the continued momentum in our London office but also the strength and depth of our offering to clients," said Andy MacLeod, Joint Partner in Charge of the firm's London office.
