Altitude Internet Expand In Dublin, Taking Additional Office Space and Hiring Top Talent For 2018.

Altitude Internet, The "Award Winning Google Partner" with offices in the UK and Ireland have chosen Dublin as their base for expansion and growth of the SEO and Paid Search technical teams for 2018.

Altitude Internet opened their first office in Ireland in late 2016 and throughout 2017 have been impressed with the level of growth across the Irish markets and coupled with a strong economy in Ireland and a buoyant and skilled job market have agreed a lease on additional new office space to allow the doubling of their team through 2018.

New positions have been created for SEO Technical roles and expect the Paid Search Sales Team, Paid Search Optimisation and SEO content team to all grow in Dublin through 2018 and beyond.

The new office space is located at Northwood Business Campus, Dublin 9.

Altitude Internet were nominated a "Rising Star of Digital 2016/2017" by Google in March 2017 and won the coveted "Google Customer Advocate Award 2016".

Customer Service is a major area of focus for the team at Altitude Internet, as such Altitude Internet are one of the highest rated digital marketing agencies in the UK and Ireland based on almost 400 client reviews on leading review sites including Trust Pilot and Reviews.io.

Altitude Internet currently manage paid search campaigns and Search Engine Optimisation for thousands of clients across the EU and all of the technical work for these clients is to be managed at the new Northwood offices in Ireland.

Further jobs are expected to be created during 2018 / 2019 as the business continues to expand the operations in Ireland.

Northwood Business Campus is a vibrant mixed use residential and commercial development where occupants can enjoy a range of onsite amenities, including a supermarket, gym, shops, bars and restaurants.
